Advice of the Danish Health Authority

Social activities in December 2020.

The Danish Health Authority has the following advice and recommendations for social activities in December:

- Socialise with few people.
- Socialise with the same people.
- Keep socialising short.
- Cancel or postpone meetings with people you do not see very often.