Christmas and New Year 2020/2021

Christmas

- The ban on gatherings of more than 10 people and the recommendations not to gather more than 10 people in private homes and to limit one's social bubble to a maximum of 10 people also apply at Christmas.

- Although you should socialise with as few people as possible on Christmas Eve, you can see your closest family even if you have not seen them recently.

- The ban on gatherings will be adjusted to allow for Christmas Eve celebrations with up to 50 people at social care institutions and nursing homes. However, such events ought to be held in groups of no more than 10 people.

- The ban on gatherings will be adjusted to allow associations, organisations, drop-in centres etc. to host Christmas Eve celebrations with up to 50 people for homeless and vulnerable, lonely people. However, such events ought to be held in groups of no more than 10 people.

- The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Denmark and other religious communities are still allowed to hold services etc. in premises at their disposal. However, Christmas services etc. will be different than usual due to the rules and requirements on minimum floor area, face masks, hand sanitizer and social distancing, including in connection with singing. Contact your local parish church or religious community for further information.

New Year

The ban on gatherings of more than 10 people and the recommendations not to gather more than 10 people in private homes and to limit one's social bubble to a maximum of 10 people apply for New Year's Eve.

- The ban on gatherings will be adjusted to allow for New Year celebrations with up to 50 people at social care institutions and nursing homes. However, such events ought to be held in groups of no more than 10 people.

- On New Year's Day (1 January 2021), the ban on the sale of alcohol and the requirement that establishments selling food and drinks etc. must stay closed (except for takeaway food and drinks) is extended from 5.00 am to 9.00 am.
